

MAREN R. NIEHOFF
maren.niehoff@mail.huji.ac.il

Maren Niehoff is Max Cooper Professor of Jewish Thought at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem and a member of the Israeli Academy of Sciences and Humanities. Her research interests focus on Philo of Alexandria and Hellenistic Judaism as well as early Christianity, especially Paul, and rabbinic literature in the Land of Israel.

Currently, Niehoff works on a Commentary on Philo's Treatise On the Freedom of Every Righteous (for the Brill Series of Philo of Alexandria Commentaries), heads an interdisciplinary research group "Remapping Ancient Elites: between East and West" (2022-25 at Scholion, Hebrew University) and edits three volumes of Greek and Roman texts written in late antique Palaestina and translated into Hebrew. She also begins to prepare an intellectual biography of Rabbi Abbahu of Caesarea.
